

DRAWING MATTER

ARCHITECTURE SUMMER SCHOOL

AUG 19 - 23, 2024

Are you aged over 15 and curious about studying architecture?

The prestigious Drawing Matter Architecture Summer School is back in its 8th year with a new format, now based at Drawing Room in Bermondsey, London.

Whether you've just started A-Levels, you're on a different course, or perhaps you're already in the world of work, this is your chance to experience university level architectural education and gain insights into an architect's way of seeing the world.

During the free five-day course you will take part in various activities, including drawing, discussions, practical experimentation, and collaborative learning, guided by leading professionals in architectural and landscape education.
